 13. District XIII will include the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba, and the territories of Northwest Territories, Nunavut, and Yukon.

SECTION 3: QUALIFICATIONS.

- A. A Board candidate must be an active Member of the Association immediately prior to his/her nomination and District Directors must reside in the District in which he/she is voted and elected. Moving out of the District during the term on the Board will require resignation from the Board with a special election for a new District Director from that District. The newly elected District Director will finish the current term and be eligible for two additional terms.
- B. If an Officer or District Director is absent from two consecutive regularly scheduled Board meetings without Board approval, the position shall be declared vacant and a new Director elected.

SECTION 4: PRIVATE PRACTITIONER PERCENTAGE. More than 50% of the District Directors serving on the Board at any one time shall be primarily involved in private veterinary practice. The Association Membership database will be used to determine professional employment type.

SECTION 5: ELECTION OF DISTRICT DIRECTORS.

- A. The Executive Director is the Chief Electoral Officer is who shall determine which directors will complete their term of office at the next annual meeting of the Association's Members ("Annual Business Meeting"), and provide by mail and/or electronic means to each active Member of the respective districts in which a vacancy will occur a request for qualified nominations.
- B. Names of all qualified nominees who are Active Members in good standing and who agree to serve will be placed on a ~~primary~~the ballot (i.e., if more than two nominees are presented).
- C. ~~Primary ballots~~Ballots will be provided by mail or electronic means to the voting Membership of the respective districts at least 60 days prior to the Annual Business Meeting. ~~Primary ballots~~Ballots may be submitted to the Executive Director or his or her designee by mail or electronically. ~~The primary ballots~~ballots that are returned in a timely manner will be counted. ~~Any candidate receiving more than 50% of the votes cast from the District will be declared the election winner. When no candidate receives more than 50% of the vote, an election ballot will be prepared listing the two candidates (or in the case of tie, there may be more), who received the greatest number of primary votes.~~
- D. ~~The candidate receiving the highest number of votes will be declared the winner. In the case of a tie, a second ballot will be distributed to the membership at least 30 days prior to the Annual Business Meeting. Ranked-choice voting will be applied where the voting members will be asked to rank candidates based on their preferred order of choice. Members may also only select one candidate if they have no preferred secondary candidates. If a candidate wins an outright majority of the first-preference votes (ie. 50% plus one), that candidate will be declared the winner. If only two candidates are on the ballot and both candidates receive the same number of first-preference votes, second-preference votes will be counted. If more than two candidates are on the ballot and no candidates win an outright majority of first-preference votes, the candidate with the fewest first-preference votes will be eliminated. All first-preference votes for the failed candidate are eliminated, lifting the second-preference choices indicated on those ballots. A new tally will be conducted to determine whether any candidate has won an outright majority of the adjusted voters. The process will be repeated until a candidate wins a majority of votes cast.~~
- D. ~~Election ballots will be provided by mail or electronic means to the voting Members of the respective districts at least 30 days prior to the Annual Business Meeting. Election ballots may be submitted to the Executive Director his or her designee by mail or electronically. Individuals receiving the greatest number of votes on the election ballots will be declared the winners in their districts and so announced at the Annual Business Meeting.~~
- E. In the case of only one nominee to the ~~election~~ ballot, that nominee will be declared as the election winner by acclamation ~~and an election ballot will not be mailed.~~

- F. When election of a candidate from other than private practice would result in 50% or more of the Directors being non-private practitioners, such nominees will not be seated.
- G. In the event an elected non-private practitioner cannot be seated because of the 50% private practitioner percentage requirement, the private veterinary practitioner receiving the highest number of votes in that district will be seated. In the event that a private practitioner is not among the candidates, the nominations shall be reopened and the election repeated in the district(s) involved.

SECTION 6: TERM OF OFFICE.

- A. District Directors shall be elected for a term of three years by Members of their respective Districts and may serve one additional term, with partial terms not being considered in the limitation.
